The Ex-President of Chili Commits Suicide.

PREFERRED DEATH TO CAPTURE

Being Unable to Escape From the Country He Ends His Existence With a Revolver—How the News of His Death Was Received in Santiago—Two Letters Written By the Ex-President Just Before His Death.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The Herald's Valparaiso correspondent telegraphs as follows: Ex-President Balmaceda, of Chili, shot himself through the temple in his room at the Argentine legation in Santiago at 8:30 Saturday morning. The story became known here in the afternoon and created the greatest excitement.

It seems that Balmaceda left Santiago on Aug. 29 in the hope of making his escape from Chili, but seeing that every avenue of retreat was cut off he returned there on Sept. 2 and went direct to the Argentine legation.

After the disastrous battle near Valparaiso and the surrender of Santiago on Aug. 29, in company with ex-Alcalde Victor Echaurren he took a carriage and drove to a point two miles outside the city. Here a special train of one car and a locomotive was in waiting. The train went at high speed as far as Linderos, forty-five miles south of Santiago. There more carriages were in waiting. Hurriedly alighting from the train they entered the carriages and were again driven rapidly away. His intention had been to go on board the vessel Condell which he expected to find lying in San Antonio bay. Upon arriving there, however, he discovered, to his chagrin, that the vessel had sailed.

No one with the exception of the minister of the Argentine Republic and one other man who was devoted to the unfortunate ex-president's cause, was admitted to talk to or see him.

All the different phases of flight were considered by the hunted ex-president.

Senor Urriburua went to the theatre Friday night. When he returned to the legation he had a long and earnest talk with Balmaceda relative to the latter's ideas previously broached about the advisability of giving himself up to the junta. Balmaceda and Senor Urriburua went to bed at midnight.

Senora Urriburua, about 8 a. m. Saturday, heard a pistol shot in the bedroom which had been assigned to Balmaceda. She notified her husband. Before he went to Balmaceda's room he ran around to the house of Carlos Walker Martinez and brought that gentleman back to the legation. Upon breaking in the door of Balmaceda's room it was found that he had shot himself. The body was still warm. There was a gaping wound in the temple. The body was undressed and lay on the bed. The revolver was still held in his right hand.

Senor Concho ran to Moneda and informed the junta of what had happened. A commission was promptly issued. It comprised Carlos Walker Martinez, Senor Concho and Judge Aguerre of the supreme court. They went direct to the legation from the office of the junta's representatives and viewed the body. They then drew up a process verbal certifying to the facts already stated. Gradually the news spread all over Santiago. The excitement is indescribable. Great crowds of terribly excited people gathered all around the Argentine legation. They cheered and they howled and went into a frenzy over the death of their chief enemy. Above all the discordant shouts were heard cries congratulating the unfortunate Balmaceda that in taking his own life he had escaped a worse fate.

Balmaceda left a letter to his mother. Also a statement to The Herald. As almost the last declarations of a dying man they are of especial importance. He says: "I acted all during the past eight months with the firm conviction that I was right. I had no one in the army in whom I could place any trust. My generals were false to me. They lied all through the war. Had my orders been obeyed I believe that the battle of Concepcion would have resulted in a decisive victory against the enemy.

"My heart all through this trouble has been with Chili. I sought to rescue my country from foreign domination. I strove to make her the first republic in America. My enemies say that I was cruel. Circumstances compelled me to sanction certain acts, but many bad deeds that have been attributed to my orders were never known by me until they had been committed.

"Until the final battle at Placilla I had strong hopes of triumphing over my foes. Victory was assured by my generals, Alcega, and Barbosa and Viel. They all lied. I now know those who only pretended friendship for me because of the money that was to be gotten out of me. All the money that I have in my possession is $2,500. My wife gave it to me on the night of Aug. 28.

"Your minister, Patrick Egan, many times offered me good advice. He urged me to make peace with those opposed to me and to retire from Chili. I did not heed his wise advice, for I thought he was under the influence of the junta's orders, who were then refugees in the American legation. All through the trouble my closest advisers were always opposed to any overtures for peace."

Another letter was found addressed to Senor Urriburua. In it Balmaceda says: "When I saw the persecution directed against me by persons who had supported my administration I came to the conclusion that the only way to put an end to this persecution was to take my life as I was the responsible one. Adios, my good friend. Give my farewell to my wife and children."

The junta has the Argentine legation guarded by troops to prevent an attack on the part of the populace, but everything is quiet at Santiago.

Balmaceda's body has been removed to the general cemetery. It was accompanied by the members of the family and friends.

The widow of the dead ex-president was informed of his tragic ending by her brother, Domingo Torro.

DUEL ON THE HIGHWAY.

Brother-in-Laws Quarrel and Resort to the Revolver.

DANVILLE, Ky., Sept. 21.—Particulars of a fatal shooting affray between Tom Beckner and Ed Hale, brothers-in-law, in Laurel county, near London, Thursday, have just been received here.

The men were going to their homes on Blackwater creek, and got into a friendly scuffle in the road. Beckner's watch was broken in the wrestle, and this angered him. He snatched a pistol from a belt worn by Hale, and after a few words had passed between them, attempted to shoot Hale. Hale caught the weapon, and turned it downward, when it was discharged, and he received the bullet in his thigh. Hale then got mad and wrenched the pistol from Beckner's grasp.

The latter then started on a run towards a fence corner, where he had concealed his own weapon in the morning, and Hale, believing that Beckner would get his pistol and shoot at him again, shot the running man, the ball striking him about middle-ways of his back and perforating his bowels. He lingered in great agony all night, and died in the morning. Hale is suffering very much from the wounds in his leg, and has not yet been placed under arrest.

A KENTUCKY PATRACIDE.

Logan Murphy Shoots and Kills His Father and is Captured.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 21.—Near Salyersville, about 1 o'clock Thursday morning, Logan Murphy shot and killed his father, Isaac Murphy. He then stood guard over the house till daylight, and prevented his mother or any of the other children from going out. Just before sunrise he left, and tried to escape, but the news spread quickly, and soon an armed band was on his track.

He turned in his course, which was at first away from the county, and was captured going towards Salyersville by Jailor Patrick and Deputy Sheriff Brown and Bator, who were coming out to join in the pursuit. He gave no reason for the murder except that he had quarreled with his father over a trivial matter, and his father had threatened his life.

No lawyer at Salyersville would defend Murphy, and he began his own defense by waiving an examination. In default of bail he was held a prisoner and taken to Prestonburg jail.

AN ODD FELLOW EVENT.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—The sovereign grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows meets in this city today and will continue four days. For the past two days visitors have been flocking into the city from all directions and all the leading hotels are crowded.

Arrangements for their reception and entertainment are complete, and an elaborate program has been prepared. An addition to the street illuminations in their honor has been made by the erection of a magnificent illuminated arch, bearing the emblems of the order, at the corner of Sixth and Olive streets. The decorations of Odd Fellows' hall are completed, and the local marshals of the grand parade have decided upon uniforms and other incidentals.

Liberal prizes have been offered for the competitive drill at the fair grounds, as well as for most deserving lodges in the parade.

CONTEMPTIBLE THIEVES.

They Enter a Miner's Dwelling and Steal or Destroy Nearly Everything in It.

WELLINGTON, O., Sept. 21.—Two Kentuckians, John Collins and Charles Curn, broke into the house of George Farmer Saturday in broad daylight, and stole every stitch of clothing belonging to that gentleman.

Farmer lives alone, and was at work in the coal mine when the thieves entered his house of everything that was valuable. What they didn't take along they destroyed, and left their own old, dirty clothes in the house. The two thieves are bad characters, and have both served terms for burglary. They have fled to Kentucky. Warrants for their arrest have been issued, and the officers will pursue them.

Two Children Burned to Death.

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—Sadie and Mary Cullen, aged respectively seven and five years, were burned to death at their home 29 Norfolk avenue Sunday morning. Two younger children were rescued by the firemen. The children had been locked in their bedroom by their parents who went to church. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Resisted Arrest.

DESLAINE, Ills., Sept. 21.—Last evening Jack Thompson, a wood engraver of this village, well known in Chicago police circles, shot and fatally wounded Aaron Minnick, one of the village trustees, and also shot Officer Robert Cain. Thompson is a hard character and he did the shooting while resisting arrest. Minnick cannot recover.

Beer War in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—A war in the matter in price of beer by the barrel was inaugurated Saturday by the Cooke Brewing company, which announces that the cut is necessary because of unscrupulous competition. The price heretofore, except for the poorest quality, has been from $5 to $6. The new price announced is $5.

RAILROAD WRECKS.

An Accident Happens to a Circus Train.

TWO SLEEPERS DEMOLISHED.

One Woman Probably Fatally Injured While a Number of Others Are Slightly Hurt—Five People Killed in a Wreck on the Union Pacific.

WHEELING, Sept. 21.—The Robinson show train was wrecked between Steubenville and Washington, Pa., Saturday morning. Two sleeping cars attached to the train jumped the track at Canonsburg. The cars left the rails without warning. Both were badly wrecked. In the cars were the leading actors and actresses and the heads of departments.

The wife of Boss Hostler Eagles, who had been in the east all summer, had but recently joined the show. She was the most severely injured, but it is not believed that her wounds will prove fatal.

Jack Lynch, the head cook, was also very painfully injured, but will be about in a week or two.

At least a dozen of the others were scratched and bruised somewhat, but none gravely hurt.

The most serious damages is the destruction of the two cars, the wrecks of which had to be burned to clean the tracks so as to let the show through on time.

PASSENGER TRAINS COLLIDE.

Accident on the Union Pacific That Cost Five Lives.

POCATELLO, Ida., Sept. 21.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the Union Pacific at Port Neuf, a station six miles from Pocatello. Passenger trains No. 1 and 2 collided, killing five men and seriously injuring several others. The killed are: L. Weldemeyer, mail clerk, and four Indians from Fort Hall reservation.

The injured are: Charles Hoyt, engineer; Chris Mackenzie, P. P. Gunderson, mail clerk; Lyons, two tramps and a squaw. Lyons was fearfully scalded and received internal injuries. Engineer Hoyt had his shoulder blade broken and is otherwise badly bruised. Mackenzie and Gunderson both had their right arms broken and were terribly cut. The cause was failure of air brakes to work.

IN A HURRY TO DIE.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 21.—William Fitzgerald, the Youngstown murderer, who is awaiting execution in the annex of the penitentiary for killing a policeman, has reached the lowest depths of despondency, and wants to die at once. Fitzgerald called Warden Dyer into the annex the other evening to tell him about his trouble. He wanted the warden to come into the cage, and then into the cell, where they sat on the side of the bed and talked.

Fitzgerald said he wanted to die right away, and wanted to know if the warden could not execute him immediately. The warden told him that would be utterly impossible. Because of the number of conflicting stories Fitzgerald told, and the fact that he denied being in the Michigan penitentiary, together with his despondency, Warden Dyer has not shown Fitzgerald the letter he received from the warden of the Michigan prison with the photographs. The next execution will be that of Henry W. Herle, of Tuscarawas county, on Oct. 16. Fitzgerald's date is Nov. 19.

SUSPICIOUS DEATH.

A Railroad Employee Found Dead by the Roadside.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Sept. 21.—Henry Gleich, an employee of the Chicago and Erie Railway company, was found dead by the side of the Wabash Railway track, in the eastern part of the city.

There are strong suspicions that he was murdered, and it is not improbable that several arrests will be made of persons who are thought to know all about the affair. The murdered man was twenty-eight years old, and leaves a widow and three bright children.

A Postmaster Mysteriously Killed.

WAPAKONETA, O., Sept. 21.—Saturday night, at St. John's, William Herring, the postmaster, was probably murdered. At 2 a. m. his wife heard a commotion in the chicken coop and Mr. Herring went out with his revolver. Soon the wife heard the report of a revolver, and upon investigation Herring's lifeless body was found near the coop with a bullet through his heart. His revolver was lying by his side. Some think that he was killed by the chicken thief, while others think it was accidental.

Ready to Enter Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 21.—Yesterday had little semblance to Sunday. All day the streets were crowded with prairie schooners, carriages, horsemen and foot passengers, all jammed into a shouting, struggling, hurrying mass. At the negro settlement of Langston are 2,000 negroes, all armed and on the road. All of these negroes are determined to have a claim or fight. On every side of the reservations the line is one continuous camp, and the number of people in waiting is fully thirty thousand.

Death of an Old Telegrapher.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 21.—Ira Berry, grand secretary of the Masons, of Maine, died yesterday, aged ninety years. He was the first telegraph operator and manager of the Boston (Mass.) office.

WILLIAM L. SCOTT DEAD.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 21.—Ex-Congressman William L. Scott is dead. His demise was very sudden and occurred shortly before midnight Saturday night. Mr. Scott has long been a sufferer from acute gastro-intestinal catarrh and two weeks ago he was brought here from his home in Erie, Pa., the doctors being of the opinion that the climate of Newport would be beneficial. Benefit was realized for he began to gain at once and his improvement continued till Friday.

During the afternoon of that day he had an attack of heart failure and another on Saturday, rallying quite easily the first time, but with more difficulty on the second occasion. Another attack occurred at 11 o'clock Saturday night, from which he could not be revived, and death finally ensued. The family left with the remains this morning for their home in Erie.

Dr. William Pepper, who has attended Mr. Scott during his illness said the death of that gentleman was very sudden and unexpected and was due to repeated heart failures, his gastric trouble having improved and there having been no organic disease of the stomach, bowels or kidneys.

William L. Scott, of Erie, Pa., was born in Washington, in 1828. He received a common school education and served as a page in the house of representatives for six years. He was taken from the place of page by Mr. Reed, representative of the Erie district, and employed his useful talents so well that in 1850, at the age of twenty-three, he was able to start in the coal and shipping business on the lake. Soon after he married the sister of Frank D. Tracy, late president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad; by that connection he got some money and an introduction to New York capitalists, who recognized his ability, and thereafter his advance was rapid.

He was elected mayor of Erie in 1866 and in 1871. He was elected to the Forty-ninth and re-elected to the Fiftieth Congress as a Democrat.

Since then he has devoted his time to his railroad interests. As president or director he aided in the control of 22,000 miles of railroad. He left a fortune of over $15,000,000.

One Skipped, the Other Arrested.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—Some six weeks ago two men named Czarnavick and Pickard came to this city and purchased a saloon on East Washington street. They then sent out circulars to distillers saying that they proposed to enter extensively into the wholesale liquor business and asking consignments. Grubfelder & Lachan and other firms of Louisville sent agents here and made investigations. Czarnavick was found to have $8,000 on deposit but the agents did not like the outlook, and so reported. By some means the alleged firm managed to satisfy the firms and several consignments of whisky were received but at once reshipped and sold. Saturday the $8,000 was drawn from bank and Czarnavick disappeared. Yesterday an agent of a Louisville firm arrived and had Pickard arrested.

Fatally Injured by a Fall.

NEWARK, O., Sept. 21.—George Walker, employed by Smith & Norris, lumbermen, was horribly and certainly fatally injured while loading lumber on a car. In stepping from a wagon to a car, carrying some boards, he missed his footing and fell, alighting on the wagon wheel, crushing and mangling his body in an awful manner. His condition is such as to preclude any possibility of recovery. To add to his misfortune, the wife was confined, leaving both destitute of assistance.

Catholic Missions in Danger.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—A dispatch from Bagamoyo, Zanzibar, says that the Wadigo tribe in the northern territory have rebelled, and that the settlements of Lewa and Magila are in danger. The dispatch adds that the Arabs are restless and that the general situation is very bad. The Catholic missions in the interior are also in danger. Prompt and effective measures will be required to avoid a serious disaster.

A Revolutionary Rello.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 21.—W. H. Hostetter, of Jamestown, possesses a sword and a well-preserved coat worn by Major John Byrd when he was killed at the battle at King's Mountain, S. C., Oct. 9, 1780. The coat was made of blue cloth and emblazoned with blue trimmings, and is of the long-tail, claw-hammer variety. It is a highly-prized heirloom. Major Byrd was a soldier under Greene.

Convicts Will Be Released.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 21.—The statement is positively made by citizens of Coal Creek and Briceville that the convicts in that region will be released so early as the legislature adjourns without taking some step looking to a final removal of the convicts. No one ventures an opinion as to when it will be done. They will be set free this time if they are disturbed at all.

Veteran Killed by a Fall.

SANDUSKY, O., Sept. 21.—Thomas Kennelly, of Fremont, this state, an inmate of the soldiers' home here, was found dead Saturday near the above institution, he having fallen from an insecure bridge some time during the previous night, and fractured his skull.

Died in Prison.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 21.—Maggie Conley, an unfortunate woman of Portsmouth, died in Columbus city prison.

EVENING BULLETIN.

Proprietors.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1891.

What's the matter with Middlesborough? One of her daily papers suspended publication not long since, and now the other one—the News—has followed suit. The News will appear hereafter as a weekly.

The school children of Jackson, Ky., now take holiday on Mondays instead of on Saturdays. This is an innovation in Kentucky, but the plan seems to meet with favor. Rev. J. J. Dicke, editor of the Hustler and member of the State Board of Education, says: "We heartily indorse the change, and have advocated it for twenty years but never put it on trial. After Sunday's rest, Monday finds the student fresh and ready for work. It also takes away the temptation to study on Sunday, which many seem unable to resist."

Here is an outline for a political cartoon: Draw Major McKinley with a tin can in his hand. Let the can be labeled, "War tax doubled in time of peace at an expense to consumers of $15,000,000 a year."

Let him be shaking in the can a boodle silver dollar, with the legend attached, "I voted for this seventy-cent shiner." And let McKinley himself be weeping—in fact, blubbering—with a label close to the falling tear reciting: "I voted for free coinage, and it didn't pass."

Then there might be attached to the tail of his coat another tag explaining, "I voted to pass the Bland-Allison Silver bill over my bogus President's veto."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Hon. T. H. PAYSTER, Judge Wall, Col. Wm. Moore and Judge Lahan T. Moore can now lay aside any Congressional aspirations they may have for '92. The editor of the Covington Post has settled the matter, and says the Hon. Geo. W. Castle will go to Congress from the Ninth district after serving out his term the coming winter as Sergeant-at-Arms of the State Senate, an office by the way to which "Castle George" has yet to be elected. According to the Post, Mr. Castle is "responsible" for the bill which "redistricted Kentucky and made the Ninth solidly Democratic," and for this reason he will be our next Congressman. Thus are we told wherein Mr. C.'s qualifications for Representative exist. We don't know, but the Democrats of the district may entertain an opinion entirely different from that of the Post. Won't our friend at Covington please give them some say in the matter?

It is very cruel in the Post to thus suddenly dash to the ground the hopes of the other aspirants.

Last week a report was published in a number of the big city papers that the people of Shelbyville, Ind., were panic-stricken on account of a diphtheria epidemic, and that thirty deaths from the disease had occurred in the place in one day. We were confident there was but little truth in the dispatch as soon as we read it, and it turns out we were right. A special from Shelbyville Saturday states that there have been only eight deaths altogether from the disease, and that there is no epidemic or scare whatever.

It has come to pass of late that many, very many, of the reports that find their way into the papers are very gross exaggerations. There is rarely an issue of some papers which does not contain a correction of some false report. A reform on this line is badly needed. There are many correspondents throughout Kentucky who are given to this fault, and who color up their specials simply to make them "go." If these fellows were "fired," journalism would be benefited, and one could place more credence in what he finds in the papers.

The BULLETIN stated a few days since that Governor Campbell never failed to make it exceedingly interesting for his opponents, and that Major McKinley would find this true before the campaign in Ohio was over. The Democratic thoroughbred has already got his Republican rival in a "pocket" and will likely keep him there until the race is finished.

As the Louisville Times puts it, a month ago McKinley, with a confidence that amounted to insolence, began to go up and down the State, preaching his doctrine of "honest money" and higher taxes. His was a campaign of aggression, and he thought he had the earth in a sling; but a new phase has come over the situation. From this time forth McKinley will be on the defensive, and on the "honest money" issue he will be even more on the defensive than upon the tariff issue that he scampers from weeks ago.

Campbell's opening speech at Sidney was an eye-opener for the Republicans. It showed them how their pet McKinley has been wabbling around on every side of the silver question for years.

SOLDIERS' HOME.

Address to the People of Kentucky in Which the Objects of the Home Are Set Forth.

Having been chosen by the unanimous vote of the Trustees of the Soldiers' Home in Kentucky as its Superintendent, and feeling a deep interest in its welfare and success, I deem it but a simple duty to say a word to the public in regard to its condition and the brightening prospects that now seem to hang over its future. * * * The Home for disabled old Federal soldiers is now opened for the reception and entertainment of such of them as may desire to seek shelter and protection within its walls.

Time has not yet been allowed the Trustees since the purchase of the Home to prepare room for the many of that class of soldiers who are laboring under severe disabilities and who are dragging out a miserable existence in the shadows of poverty. But the work for the completion of buildings for the accommodation of all who are entitled to admission is rapidly progressing, and we hope that during the coming year we will be able to extend a cordial welcome to every honorably discharged and decrepit soldier in Kentucky.

Nearly all the rooms are now occupied, and we have application for admission on file for more than we can shelter and bed as we would like.

The Home is situated just eight miles from about the center of the city of Louisville, near the banks of Harrod's Creek, and less than a half-mile from the beautiful Ohio river. It is reached by what is called the narrow-gauge railroad, which is now owned by the L. and N. Railroad Company.

The land upon which the main building, quite a large brick edifice, is located, is somewhat undulating, but of a very rich soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat, oats, rye, vegetables and fruits of every description.

On the east and southeast of this little farm is a considerable farm, partly planted with a fine orchard, which, when the seasons are favorable, produces a sufficient quantity of apples for the Home during the summer, fall and winter, besides enough to produce more than four times the quantity of vinegar we can consume.

The grounds are susceptible of being made very beautiful and attractive at a very small expense. The front yard and other portions of the grounds are now adorned with large native and other trees affording most luxuriant shade.

I am informed by those who have known the place for many years that families heretofore residing upon it have always enjoyed fine health.

The immediate neighborhood is being rapidly occupied by wealthy, refined and intelligent people from the city of Louisville, who are building handsome villas upon the hill-tops on the south and east of the Home as summer resorts. * * *

All that I can say or do in the premises is in the name of the Trustees, as well as my own, to extend a most cordial invitation to any, who are inclined to do so, to visit the Home and ascertain what is being done for the comfort and protection of our old comrades in arms. I can assure them of a most hearty welcome. * * * In conclusion I have the pleasure to announce that on the 7th day of next October the Home will be formally dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. * * * I would also earnestly and respectfully call upon all good people who know of any disabled old soldiers to inform them that there is a place prepared for them where they will not only be welcomed but kindly cared for.

Whipped a Fresh Young Lawyer.

Maysville theater-goers remember Mr. J. H. Huntley, of the Huntley Comedy Company. The company was at Owensboro last week and Mr. Huntley created a sensation by whipping a young lawyer, Elliott Mason, for making some remarks disparaging of the merits, virtue and morality of the female members of the troupe. The participants in the fight were duly fined and costed. As Mason left the court room he was accosted by Huntley, the proprietor of the troupe, who insisted upon fighting a duel outside the city limits. Mason declined to go outside the Mason and Dixon line of the corporation, and immediately swore out a warrant for Huntley, charging assault and challenge to fight a duel according to the Kentucky code. The warrant against Huntley was dismissed.

A Song Recital.

Miss Decca is about to introduce to Maysville people a new and unique entertainment which she is pleased to term a "song recital." This will bring the "Kentucky nightingale" before the public in a new role, for she will not only sing the great arias, but also Italian cavatinas, French chanssonettes, English ballads and Scotch songs. In other words, she will be "sole monarch" of the evening's program, and be the leading star as well as her own best support. The entertainment will be a liberal musical education, for it will give the audience an idea of the leading songs of the greatest composers of all nations.

The song recital will be given in Washington Opera House, Saturday, afternoon, September 26th.

A Minister's Opinion.

Mr. Jacob Connor, a German Baptist minister at Royer's Ford, Montgomery County, Pa., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy for diarrhea, colic and cramp in the stomach. I have never used any medicine with better or more satisfactory results. I consider it one of the best ever used in our family. For sale by Power & Reynolds."

County Court.

Edward M. Henderson filed application to have road No. 7, leading from Rectortown to Cabin Creek, changed and Scott F. Fletcher, Leander Trumbo and Valentine McClure were appointed viewers.

Karr & Co. were granted license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLICK.
We have two Marshals in this place now. We must have peace.

Last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the mercury ran up to 92° in the shade.

We have had a hotter spell of weather this month than any during the summer.

Mrs. George Myall has returned from Shawhan, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Jackson.

Mat Archdeacon, an old Mayslicker, was down from Carlisle a few days since and made us a social call.

Misses Sadie and Addie Wheatley, of "Pleasant Place," made a call at the Stonewall House on last Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph H. Brown and Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson went over to Mt. Carmel last week to spend a few days with friends.

Miss Mary Wilson Jackson, of Shawhan, came over last week to attend our flourishing school, taught by Prof. W. R. Chaudron.

J. F. Parker and George Linville, of Mt. Olivet, Frank Abbot, of Paris, James Brooks, of Georgetown, J. L. Brown, of Cincinnati, and F. E. Dyer were registered at the Stonewall House a few days last week.

Mr. Paulkner, of Flemingsburg, has erected for Mrs. Sue Hopper, to the memory of her departed husband, a family monument, and we think one of the handsomest designs in our cemetery, at a cost of four hundred and seventy-five dollars.

Quite a number of our colored gentlemen, who have been visiting in our city, went to Maysville last week to attend and testify in the case of Eliza Jones, who was captured in Cincinnati, charged with shooting at another with intent to kill.

Miss Belle Ingram, the accomplished and prepossessing young lady who has been visiting among friends and relatives in this vicinity for some weeks past, to the regret of all, left a few days since for Maysville, where she will spend a couple of weeks and then, with her aged mother, will leave for her home in Missouri. She carries with her the kindest feelings of all. May she soon return to old Kentucky.

THE opening of fall and winter millinery at Miss Niland's on the 25th and 26th will surpass any thing ever shown in the millinery line in Maysville. The public cordially invited. 19d5t

COLONEL CHARLES A. MARSHALL, of Washington, received a telegram Saturday bringing the sad news of the death of his son-in-law, Mr. Edward Wilkes, at Salt Lake City that morning.

THE Court of Appeals Saturday reversed the opinion of the Warren Circuit Court in which the Courier-Journal Company was fined $2,500 for publishing an advertisement of the Louisiana State Lottery in 1888, in the Weekly Courier-Journal. The indictment was under chapter 20, article 23, section 5, General Statutes, which refer to the punishment of any one who shall advertise, etc., where lottery tickets may be obtained in this State.

CAPTAIN JAMES HEFLIN took Bob Wilson up to Vanceburg Saturday and turned him over to the authorities of that place. Wilson is charged with burglarizing Fisher's store.

MR. JOHN HANLEY, of Ruddle's Mills, Bourbon County, and his daughter, Miss Winifred, arrived Saturday morning. Miss Hanley entered the Academy of the Visitation as a pupil yesterday.

REV. D. D. CHAPIN received word Saturday that his son John is ill at Sewanee, where he is attending the University of the South. He is threatened with typhoid fever, but was better at last accounts.

THE Bee Hive advertises its fall millinery opening in this issue. The dates are next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The ladies should not fail to see this display of pattern hats and novelties in headwear.

SOME miscreant Saturday night shot a hole in one of the large show windows at Keith-Schroeder's saddle and harness salesroom. Captain Heflin is at work on the case. He thinks the hole was not made by a bullet.

THE melancholy days are coming, but Ballenger's late purchase of fine jewelry is already on hand. If you want anything in the jewelry line, you should always call on him. He keeps the latest novelties. Goods guaranteed.

MAYSVILLE COMMANDERY No. 10, K. T., will go to Cincinnati Wednesday to attend the annual convocation of the Ohio Grand Commandery. They will be accompanied by Haucke's Reed and Brass Band and will be the guests of Hamselmann Commandery.

IN the case of Mrs. Julia J. Reigart against the American Accident Company of Louisville, taken up from this county, a notice and copy of the judgement were filed in the Court of Appeals Saturday. Grounds were then filed and a motion to dismiss the appeal with damages was made. The company has until October 15th to respond to the motion.

THE Portsmouth Blade tells of a rather singular accident on the C. and O., near Greenup, Saturday morning. A freight train was coming west, when a cylinder head of the engine blew out and ripped up the track for a short distance. The disabled engine was side-tracked, and section hands repaired the track and prevented any delay of the passenger trains.

NOW THAT the elections and fair, racing, &c., are over, and the wheat and tobacco is being handled generally, Frank Owens Hardware Co. are bringing to the front for sale hunting coats (cavass and leather), bird bags, loaded shells, ammunition of all kinds, and sportsmen's wear generally. Call and equip yourself in full for the winter's sport. Prices will suit the purchaser. tf

A. J. AUXIER, who was U. S. Marshal of this district in 1882, was sued Saturday in the U. S. Court at Louisville for a balance of about $8,000 which the Government claims he collected and failed to turn over. He claims he has accounted for all the money that ever came into his hands. His bondsmen, Ex-Congressman Culbertson and R. D. Callahan, are made parties defendant.

THE city of Maysville will be within twenty days the best known city in America. The recent fuel gas invention will create more excitement throughout the country than all the oil and gas wells put together. Frank Owens Hardware Company have just received, clean and fresh, their vast stock of guns, imported direct from foreign makers, breech-loaders and muzzle-loading; also American makes, all of which they will sell very low.

Said the Covington Commonwealth on Saturday: "Dr. J. J. Malloy has what he has always claimed to be the most gentle horse in the city. The nag can be bought to-day for a mere song, while yesterday morning $200 would not have touched the animal. Yesterday the physician stopped to make a call on a patient and tied his 'gentle' horse to an old sewing machine that was on the sidewalk. When the doctor came out of the house the 'gentle' horse was flying down the street at a two thirty gait, dragging the buggy and machine with him. The doctor gave pursuit, but he is not built for a sprinter, and would not have caught up with the nag in a week but for the bravery of Officer O'Hare, who caught the critter and turned him over to her rightful owner. Now the doctor is desirous of selling the gentle animal to somebody that owns a brick house that he can be hitched to."

Here and There.

Miss Mayme Doyle, of Portsmouth, is here to attend the Kehoe-Kane nuptials on the 24th instant. She is a guest of the Misses Kane, of Plum street.

Miss Ella Newell has returned from an extended visit at Terre Haute, Ind. She was accompanied home by Miss Gulick, who will be her guest for several days.

River News.

The C. W. Batchelor has gone to the bank on account of low water.

The New South is to be thoroughly overhauled and painted. She needs the paint.

The St. Lawrence and Stanley will pass down this evening and the City of Madison to-night. Due up: Carrollton at 9 p. m. and Boston at midnight.

All the predictions of "old timers" and river and weather prophets, concerning the stages and conditions of the river for the past few years have failed, and they will continue to fail. Last summer predictions were made of a long low water siege in the Ohio, and the same was predicted the year before, when it is a well-known fact that there hasn't been any low water "sieges" in the Ohio for three or four years. There has been no ice, and navigation has been uninterrupted to a remarkable degree.

A Big Deal in Real Estate.

The biggest deal in real estate made in Mason County for some time was closed the latter part of last week. Mr. H. D. Watson sold his fine farm of 350 acres at Shamam, the consideration being $100 per acre—$35,000. Mr. E. T. Rees, of Fern Leaf, is the purchaser, and it is said he has the money to pay cash. The terms, however, have not been learned.

Mr. Watson has purchased an interest in the Limestone Flour Mills, and will soon take up his residence in this city.

Turf Topics.

Allerton lowered his record again Saturday, this time to 2:09. He now holds the world's stallion record. The owner of Nancy Hank's is ready to trot Allerton at Lexington or any other track for $10,000.

Ang. Sharpe's Greenlander won the free-for-all trot at New Albany, Ind., Friday, getting a record of 2:16.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

Real Estate Transfers.

Confidence Lodge No. 52, F. and A. M. and Charles E. Broese and wife to John J. Klipp and wife, a house and lot on north side of Boone street, near Limestone; consideration, $1,000 cash.

FIFTY cents instead of a dollar. Why? Why, so every one can try it and be convinced of the great merit of Pioneer Sarsaparilla. Thousands testify to its merits. Price, 50 cents. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

A CERTAIN gentleman of this city requested us Saturday to stop leaving the EVENING BULLETIN at his office and send it hereafter to his home. Said he: "Four or five fellows have been reading my paper for some time now. Some one of them generally 'happens' into my office just about the time the paper is delivered and he's always the first one to read it. Of course I don't object to that, but frequently parties who call to see me on business have to wait until my neighbor gets through with the paper. I don't like to ask these fellows to get out and so I supposed the best plan is to just quit leaving the paper at the office."

There is no excuse for people making such nuisances of themselves. The EVENING BULLETIN costs but a cent a copy, and a fellow who can't pay that trifling sum for all the news of the day wouldn't deserve any sympathy if he should be kicked out, when "sponging" off his neighbor.
